POWER HOUR

The banner features the iRelaunch logo (Powered by AKRAYA) on the left. The main title 'POWER HOUR' is in a red box, followed by 'Breaking Through: Finding Opportunities in a Tough Market'. A date box indicates 'Tuesday, September 15, 2026'. A time box shows '12 PM PT / 1 PM MT / 2 PM CT / 3 PM ET'. A 'Join Us' button with a right arrow is present. On the right, a circular portrait of Dhruv Mehta is shown, with his name and title 'Lead Product Manager at Best Buy Ads' below it. The background has a geometric pattern of white squares on a light grey background.

Breaking Through: Finding Opportunities in a Tough Market

The job market is tight right now. Fewer openings, more applicants, longer waits between replies.

Joining us for this Power Hour is Dhruv Mehta, Lead Product Manager at Best Buy Ads, for an honest conversation about finding opportunities in a market that isn't handing them out.

Come for a practical perspective on navigating a competitive job search and keeping your momentum going.

💬 And bring your questions! We'll have a live Q&A with Dhruv, so come ready to ask about your search or whatever's got you stuck right now.
